

Reminder: Stop, Think, Ask, and Connect (STAC)

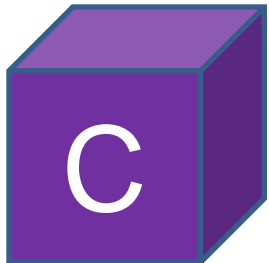

Stop during your STEM learning experiences to check for understanding and connect content.

Think about the content, practices and/or processes you will use or are using during your learning experience.

Ask yourself and/or others questions to clarify expectations, to investigate global issues or to solve real world problems or challenges.

Connect learning to global issues, problems or challenges.